

Name	ALSENO
Location	alseno
Address	29010
Description	First documental evidence of its existence dates back to 1180, when Piacenzas inhabitants built a fortress to protect themselves from Parma. The fortress was destroyed and rebuilt several times. The area became a fief of the Landis, who alternatively owned the castle until the 19th century, when the Sforza Fogliani became the new owners. At the beginning of the 20th century duchess Clelia Sforza Fogliani bequeathed it the Council to have it transformed into kindergarten. The economy of this area is based upon agriculture, preserved food industry and mechanical industry .
