

Name	OTTONE
Location	ottone
Address	29026
Description	Far from Piacenza, Ottone is few Kms from the border with Genoas province. Inhabited since very remote times by the Celts and then by the Romans, it became subsequently parish centre and castle of the obertengian march; it successively belonged to the Malaspina, Fieschi and Doria. Its territory, annexed to Genoa, was handed over to Pavia and finally to Piacenza in 1923. Important for trade and for its fair, today it is a vacation resort both for Piacenza and Genoas provinces.
