Description	The village is quite distant from the main lines of communication, and this territory's council is known above all for including Sant'Agata, small ward which, together with the very close wards of Roncole and Busset, constitutes the so called Verdian Sites. Giuseppe Verdi's villa is in Sant'Agata. Here lived the master with his second wife Giuseppina Strapponi. Verdi was not only a composer, but also a landowner and a cattle breeder.
