

Name	SCOTTI PALACE
Location	carpaneto-piacentino
Address	Piazza XX Settembre, 1
Description	Imposing building in the town centre, next to the church. In the past it was a solid castle, probably built upon a former roman castrum. In the first centuries after the year 1000 it was destroyed and rebuilt several times, in 1500 it became Pier Maria Scotti's fortress. Pier Maria Scotti was also called Buso for his incursions and robberies in the territories around Piacenza. After that it became the residence of the Scotti Douglas family until the end of 1800, when it was purchased by Carpaneto's Council for its offices. The Palace houses the Municipal Offices.
How to get there	In the town centre, parking in the square and in the adjacent streets.
Disabled access	accessible
Telephone	Comune tel. +39.0523.853002
Weekday	From 09.00 am to 1.00 pm
Closed	Sunday and festive days
Entrance fee	Free entrance
Ufficio informazioni turistiche di riferimento	Amministratore